

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has allowed me the privacy I have a right to at home. Prior to this law, I'd get 3-4 calls per night. Now, they've virtually stopped.